COLONELS CONFUSED OVER JULEP'S STATUS

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9—Page a Philadelphia lawyer, please, to advise the Kentucky colonel whether his mint julep is a beverage or a medicine.

Returns available today from Tuesday's election showed Kentucky repealed the 16-year-old prohibition amendment to its state constitution by a majority exceeding 90,000. That makes the mint julep and its alcoholic relations a beverage.

But an act of the 1934 legislature, still in effect, provides for the sale of liquor only for medicinal, sacramental, scientific or mechanical purposes. Under the law the mint julep has been a favorite medicine. And in the eyes of the law, it's still a medicine.

HAUPTMANN TELLS SON TO PRAY NIGHTLY

By The Associated Press

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 9 — Bruno Richard Hauptmann's first letter to his son, Manfred, who was 2 years old last Sunday, contained a prayer "that God will bring us up together again to happiness and life."

The letter, made public by Mrs. Hauptmann and C. Lloyd Fisher, defense attorney, after a visit with Hauptmann in the death house at the state prison, told Manfred "to pray every night" and if he did so "your guardian angel will guard you against all evil."

The letter, sent last Friday and received by Manfred Saturday, follows:

"To my son:

"My dear little Manfred, Sunday morning when mama awakens you with the usual kiss that will be your birthday. Your father, whom is always in thoughts by you, wishes you all the happiness in the world.

"Dear Manfred, listen always to your mama and don't forget to pray every night before you go to bed. If you do so your guardian angel will guard you against all evil and don't forget my son, your papa is always by you and mama and he is kissing you every night when you are deep asleep, and papa is praying too to God that he may be with you and that God will bring us together again to happiness and life.

"Your father.

"Here is a big kiss for my little Manfred."

"....THE TORCH ... BE YOURS TO HOLD IT HIGH
IF YE BREAK FAITH WITH US WHO DIE
WE SHALL NOT SLEEP, THOUGH POPPIES GROW
IN FLANDERS FIELDS."
—Col. John C. McRae.

Armistice Day

BREAK faith we shall not! Holding high the sacred torch—the torch of heaven-sent liberty—we shall "carry on." We shall value it as we value an Eternal Principle.

Americans we are, all of us; the very name holds in it something high and noble: The uncompromising integrity of a Washington; the trenchant wisdom of a Franklin; the humane charity of a Lincoln, fused by that firm adherence to Justice and Freedom which has earned our nation the respect and gratitude of the Hearts of the World.

Break faith we shall not! Loyalty to the community, loyalty to the country, loyalty to an ideal sternly beckon us onward and upward, ever bearing aloft the Torch whose flame shall be immortal. Not all of us can be statesmen, not all of us can be heroes. But ALL of us—every one—can be true Americans, worthy citizens of the greatest commonwealth that dwells in the memory of Mankind.

Break faith we shall not! Is not the onward path clearly marked? Honest endeavor, industrious efforts, scrupulous faith to the duties of good citizenship—these alone can qualify us to receive the Torch from the hands of heroes in Flanders fields.

The activity of our nation will be suspended for a moment Monday in remembrance of the lull that suddenly fell over the crimson chaos of France seventeen years ago. Surrounded by the sweet joys of peace, we meditate on the devotion to duty that swept away youth's right to live and broke the hearts of old age. May we humbly justify that devotion by a reverence for the ideals in which it originated.

First Night.

Gov. Landon of Kansas knows, of course, that millions of his countrymen are watching him intently as the possible Republican candidate for President next year. It is to the governor's credit that he is acting as little like a man with presidentitis as possible.

Wednesday night he spoke at the annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce in Cleveland. He proved what has been said of him—that he is not an orator. He lacks the forceful radio personality which is one of President Roosevelt's most valuable political assets. Perhaps he has other qualities just as valuable in the long run as the gift of oratory.

Gov. Landon spoke quietly of such things as common sense in governmental management, civil liberties and taxes so high they discourage business. He did not lambast anyone or anything, he waved no flags and proposed no panaceas. He merely explained calmly that he believed government didn't need experimentation and innovation nearly so much as it needed horse sense in the conduct of its essential operations.

It was an important occasion, which Gov. Landon chose to handle with as little an air of importance as was permitted by Cleveland newspapermen, who understood fully how important it was. In a manner of speaking, the Landon presidential show was facing the trial of a first night. A great deal was at stake, in a political sense.

The show was a departure from the usual. Many Americans, tired of theories, innovations and reforms that sound fine when they are proposed but seem to bog down in their first trials, thought it was a refreshing departure. Gov. Landon may or may not be the Republican presidential candidate, but Gov. Landon has a viewpoint which the party's candidate, whoever he is, will find valuable in the 1936 campaign.

Money Talks.

As statements from politicians are checked against each other, it becomes plain that nothing happened Tuesday, except that a lot of voters cast ballots. Republican claims of increased strength are offset by Democratic denials, all snugly backed up with statistics to prove them. Chairman Fletcher no doubt feels as confident of victory for Republicans next year as Chairman Farley feels of victory for the Democrats and the new deal. The ordinary citizen, who must take their word for it, doesn't know what to feel, consequently.

Fortunately, he can escape from his dilemma, if he wants to strike out on his own. He can make up his own mind and refuse to believe anything which he doesn't believe to be true according to his own observations. Or, he can employ one of the safest indicators of cold, impartial analysis available in these speculative United States: the betting odds.

Professional gamblers, though they sometimes make the error of believing what they want to believe, more often believe only in the things that will make money for them. Wishful thinking is out of their line. They do their guessing to make money; consequently, few of them ever are apprehended playing their cards any way but close to the belt. For what it may be worth, betting odds that President Roosevelt will be reelected dropped from 10 to 1 to 2 to 1 after Tuesday's election. Mr. Roosevelt still is the heavy favorite, but he's no longer favored at 10 to 1, which seems as neat a way of summing up the effect of the election as any offered so far.

Skidding.

Democrats, declares a Washington correspondent, are seeking a way to keep the party from skidding in the east, where President Roosevelt's control of voters is weakest.

Most motorists have dealt first hand with skidding at one time or another. Usually, the skid starts for one or more of three reasons. The vehicle is turned too sharply to the right or to the left. It is accelerated too much. The brakes are applied too heavily when the vehicle is out of control.

Experts say there are only two ways to come out of a skid. The first thing is to get the front wheels pointed in the right direction, and the second thing is to forget the brakes and the accelerator and start coasting.

In other words, the main idea is to sit tight and let nature take its course. It sounds easier than it is, because the driver's first thought is to do something drastic. However, President Roosevelt for a good many weeks now has been sitting tight, which may mean he knows more about coming out of a skid than some of his worried Democratic brethren in the back seat.

Helping a Great Cause.

All the elements essential for a successful Red Cross roll call have been provided in Marion county.

First and most important, the purpose of the campaign is of utmost merit, supplying every reason for generous and willing public support. Preliminary work has been thoroughly and efficiently handled, with a complete explanation of Red Cross service and management given people of the county in newspaper articles and through other methods of conveying the message. A large organization of volunteer committees has been formed and is ready to visit citizens to solicit memberships. This will be started Monday with solicitation in the business district, followed by a similar canvass of homes.

So it is apparent that no resident of the county will be left without an opportunity of being a contributor to this great humanitarian enterprise for the coming year. It is indeed an opportunity, one that should be welcomed by every citizen financially able to enroll and thus have a part in carrying on the far-reaching service the Red Cross performs everywhere and at all times for relief of human distress and suffering.

The Red Cross has been aptly called "The Greatest Mother." A Marion minister in a recent address applied an equally appropriate title when he referred to it as "The World's Good Samaritan."

No other organization does work of sufficient scope to deserve these two significant appellations. The Red Cross stands in a class all its own as the greatest humanitarian institution of all time. That is why communities throughout the country are uniting in the annual membership roll call starting Monday, Armistice day, a fitting occasion for opening of the campaign. The day is especially appropriate because it was during the World war that value of the Red Cross was so notably demonstrated to people everywhere.

In the nationwide roll call each community will aim to make the most creditable showing possible. To do so will be a mark of honor. Here in Marion county the slogan will be "1,000 more," meaning that many members in addition to the approximately 2,000 enrolled last year. Marion county should be able to reach that figure without difficulty.

The major portion of the total membership receipts will be kept here at home to carry on the various branches of fine community welfare work done by the Marion county chapter. Out of each membership fee, 50 cents goes to national headquarters for use in general service throughout the country.

Let us be ready to greet the membership solicitors when they call and not delay their work. All are busy people, giving time and effort generously to this important campaign and citizens owe them willing co-operation.

One More Show.

On Wednesday London twittered moderately over what apparently is the last of the weddings of the sons of King George V. The Duke of Gloucester, the king's third son, married Lady Alice Montagu-Douglas-Scott.

Standing with the duke were his brothers, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Kent. It was the second time in a year London has gazed curiously on the bachelor prince participating in marital rites, and for the ten thousandth time London wondered if it ever would have the privilege of gaping at the greatest show of all—Prince Edward's own marriage rites. Either Lady Alice or Princess Marina of Greece, the Duke of Kent's fortunate selection, would have been eligible for Wales, if only Wales, himself, had thought so.

London—the whole world, for that matter—will not relinquish the pleasure of speculating on this matchmaking morsel till the last possibility has been exhausted. Everybody loves a wedding, even an imaginary wedding—everybody, that is, except the one man who has it in his power to give his countrymen the one more show they need to make the pageantry of their times complete. The Prince of Wales, apparently, either is a master of suspense or a constitutional bachelor. England is beginning to fear the latter.

Neighborhood History

ROBERT KERR

Clearing land gave Robert Kerr, widely known pioneer of Wyandot and Marion counties, his start. Born Oct. 22, 1807, in Pennsylvania, he began at 19 to learn the tanner's trade. Later he was employed to drive hogs to the city of Baltimore at three shillings a day "and no dinner." Returning home he was employed about a saw mill for some time at $11 per month and subsequently engaged in clearing land for different parties at $2.50 and $3 per acre, his part of the contract being complete when everything under 12 inches was cleared from the ground.

He cleared 10 acres for an Indian chief named Hicks and five for another named Jack Oak. While engaged in this work he removed the timber from more than 100 acres of land; cut about 1,000 cords of wood at 20 cents a cord and made many thousand rails at 50 cents a hundred.

About this time he purchased two tracts of 80 acres each in Scott township, Marion county, paying for them $100 and $200 respectively. Following his marriage he turned his attention to farming, clearing $100 cash the first year. He then began dealing in stock, specializing in sheep raising. The prices he obtained for his wool in the seven years in which he was dealing extensively were 21½, 22½, 29, 33½, 40, 50 and 80 cents. The last season his receipts on the sale of wool and sheep aggregated him $33,000.

Mr. Kerr built and owned the Kerr House, now the Pilgrim Inn, in Marion at a cost of $60,000 and the Kerr House at Nevada at a cost of $15,000.

O. O. McIntyre
New York Day by Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—It's 4:15 p. m. and a messenger from the syndicate sits outside waiting. Unless he delivers this column to a Times Square office by 5 o'clock, it will not appear in print. Which might be a minor worry to readers but a sleepless night for me.

Not in 20 years have I ever been left at the post and I won't be today. To make it tougher, I had a page of notes cached in a suit that went to a cleaners' this morning and the servant who took it is gone for the day and I don't know the cleaner's address.

I delayed this chore because I thought it would be a cinch with those notes. My opinion of John O'Hara's book, "Butterfield 8," will pad out a few lines. Written to shock the reader. And after 70 pages I opened the windows and sent it out to the night garbage man. He thinks it's swell. Or perhaps awful.

This writing against time is somewhat a Maskelyne and Devant trick—making things appear out of thin air. A wave of the wand and a cascade of paragraphs. And out of the torrent one hopes for but rarely gets a real pearl, one that fits slickly in the mind like a grape in the mouth.

One may always resort to those columnar cliches. Chucking in a comma shifting sentence that makes different meanings. Thus: "Woman, without her, man would be a savage." And: "Woman, without her man, would be a savage." And what modern writer touches for grandeur the Biblical description of a depression—"the years the locust hath eaten?"

My divining rod of suspicion twitches when strangers on trains, aboard ship, or indeed anywhere, begin conversation without introduction. Especially when they overflow with friendliness. I sat next one at Music Hall. He chatted amiably at the intermission and because he looked as slick and successful as the Blue Train I catalogued him as a Wallingford and was unnecessarily grumpy. A half block from the theater a touch on the arm. My amiable friend. "I think you dropped this," he said. It was a silk muffler, a gift of sentimental value. Before I could thank him he was gone and I stood a fool transfixed. Tableaux!

How proud writers are over a sudden writing success. Gouverneur Morris writes me of his enthusiasm for the showing of Ayn Rand, who at 20 has a play on Broadway and a book on the presses. A Russian girl, who mastered writing beautiful English in three years. She asked Morris to criticize her first novel. Except mending a split infinitive, he found nothing he did not wish he might have done himself. Fun—writing a column like this of miscellany. Remember those home town paper fillers? At the bottom of the leading Page 1 story: "Women outnumber men two to one in Siam." Or: "The fork-billed nut-hatch has become so rare that the Audubon society knows but a single pair in the United States."

It's only when work bears down that a long abandoned cigaret habit plagues. At the moment I feel a few deep inhales—like those dizzying drags I used to indulge before breakfast—might uproot a few fancies from a tuck in memory. There was a time I automatically lighted a cigaret before answering the telephone. You know, to pep up palaver and get off things. It's a literary fixation that to be fluent one needs drink and nicotine. How about Kathleen Norris and Edna Ferber, who do neither?

The weedy young messenger, who from the aroma is sneaking a few puffs himself on the sly, peers in with an inquiring glance at the clock. A marbled monstrosity that won a prize at a Bad Taste Exhibition. It's an imitation of Venus de Milo with the face of a clock set in her tummy. A gift from the late Dr. George Dorsey, who made handsome sums writing why we behave like human beings. Good old doc, an anthropologist of note who shelved his precise English with his outer shirt and collar at our poker games. And whose cadenced cussing was music of the spheres. One night Clare Briggs—but the end of the column and a few minutes to spare.

Glancing Backward

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Monday, Nov. 9, 1925.

Twelve deaths were listed as the result of traffic accidents in Ohio over the week-end. Seven of these were in Cleveland, where a fine snow and 50-mile gale made travel unusually dangerous.

Hoke Donithen, chairman of the executive committee of the Harding Memorial association, announced that the Harding home would be restored as soon as possible to the arrangements which existed in 1921 when Mr. and Mrs. Harding left to take up their residence in the White House. Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hunt and family, who had occupied the dwelling since it was vacated by the Hardings, had moved to the former Frank C. Hughs home on Delaware avenue.

Donald J. Messenger, 22, son of County Treasurer and Mrs. James E. Messenger and a freshman in the O. S. U. college of medicine, was killed in an accident at Columbus.

Burglars took jewelry and other property valued at $1,500 from the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Merle K. Pace on Sargent street.

Asa C. Queen was reelected president of the Marion Chamber of Commerce.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Tuesday, Nov. 9, 1915.

Germany began shipment of heavy arms, ammunition and other war supplies to Turkey over the Orient railway, which had been opened to the Teutonic forces and their allies by the fall of Nish, former capital of Serbia, under attack of the Bulgarians.

Death took Ralph, four-year-old son of Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Harrington of Caledonia.

The feature picture at the Marion theater was "The Master of the House" with Julius Stiger in the leading role, while at the Columbia John Mason and Hazel Dawn were starred in "The Fatal Card."

Marion schoolboys took their football seriously. A game between Pearl street and State street school teams came to an abrupt end at the Pearl street grounds when an argument broke out and the State street boys left the field with the game standing 14-0 in favor of Pearl street. It was said the game probably would be replayed at a later date on the Lincoln park gridiron.

The first of a series of services arranged in observance of "Win My Chum" week was held at Epworth M. E. church. The pastor, Dr. Jesse Swank, was in charge and spoke on "The Way of Salvation." The week's program was sponsored by the Epworth league.

Behind The News In
Washington and Wall Street

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9—Another of those White Sulphur Springs business conferences was held in New York last week, very, very secretly. About 150 of the foremost business leaders of the country were there. If you will read the big names at the top of the roster of the National Association of Manufacturers, you will have the rough list.

How such an assemblage could foregather, eat and adjourn, without outsiders finding out about it, is the highest possible verification of the fact that nothing sensational was done. In that fact lies the story.

The unofficial topic under discussion was the same subject that comes to the fore whenever two business men meet on the street—the new deal and its effect on business. The official topic was taxation, a far safer debating subject. After some sharp expressions of opinion, the conference is supposed to have agreed to start a campaign against increased taxation and free spending.

Difficulty

At least this is the confidential report on the gathering as received by President Roosevelt. Its general authenticity has been attested elsewhere, although there seems to be some disagreement about whether taxation and spending are bipartisan political issues.

At any rate, no direct action was taken against the new deal. One or two outstanding business men who are Democrats are supposed to have attended the gathering. They opposed any step which would have a flavor of political partisanship.

The first result has been the publication nationally of a tip that the national business conference committee will start an anti-taxation drive. There will be more of that later.

Reasoning

Leaders of the conference believe they made a wise decision. Nine-tenths of those present were probably against the new deal but they realized that their votes count for little. To make any action effective they had to take a step which would have the broadest popular appeal. The dual subject of taxation and spending seemed to meet the situation.

Furthermore, such a campaign may help to keep down the spending wing of the new deal. Thus, its effect might really turn out to be non-partisan.

There was no sensible reason or excuse for the secrecy attending the gathering.

Pooling

There are many inside rumors that the Wall Street pool playboys have donned their swimming suits again. Gossips relate that the Securities and Exchange commission is checking up on a lot more pool operations than the one it has prosecuted.

The fact is the SEC has some ticker tape detectives of whom it is proud. Authorities here like to believe no large operations could escape their notice. They are always checking up.

What these detectives seem to have found lately is evidence that there could have been or might have been some pools in certain stocks. But proving it is another matter, especially because the strong price jumps of these stocks could also be logically attributed to particular conditions affecting them.

Neither the gossips nor the detectives can mention any names, nor are they likely to.

Trend

First returns from the Literary Digest poll so far are supposed to show a far stronger trend against the new deal than any of the other indices yet published. The results will be out in about two weeks. Incoming postcard ballots of the next few days may soften the figures before publication. No one knows about that.

New dealers here are grumbling that the poll question was improperly phrased. The question was:

"Do you now approve the acts and policies of Mr. Roosevelt's new deal to date?" The question submitted in the 1933 poll was:

"Do you on the whole approve the acts and policies of President Roosevelt's first year?"

Reciprocity

It did not get out, but both President Roosevelt and Premier King have had men working in Washington on the subject of trade reciprocity since the Canadian elections. These workers brought the agreement much farther along than has been publicly supposed. Incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt decided to "bone up" for his King conference. He had the two government experts who were handling the matter run up to Hyde Park to inform him fully about their progress before he left his Dutchess county home.

(Copyright, 1935, by Paul Mallon.)

BY JAMES McMULLIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 — Major George L. Berry made a slight mistake in his letter to labor unions if he wanted to enlist whole-hearted industrial cooperation in his conferences. He probably didn't intend it, but the letter (which requested information on labor's post-NRA troubles with hours and wages) gave away his strong personal predilection in favor of an NRA substitute. Conservatives also allege he has betrayed a pro-labor bias.

Many business men who had been on the fence about attending his meetings have now definitely decided to stay home. They claim there's no useful purpose to be served by "wasting time" at sessions where the cards are stacked against them in advance. Some anti-new dealers believe a situation is being rigged to prove that industry can't agree with itself about what should be done (which is true) and that therefore the government must again be empowered to control it.

But the best-posted New Yorkers doubt that President Roosevelt has any such immediate objective in mind. They figure rather that he will use the Berry conferences as a foil for discussions of his own with business leaders at which the latter will be assured that no resurrection of NRA will be attempted in '36.

Budget

Financial men expect the next federal budget to be framed in terms which will appeal to conservatives. They look for the regular budget to be held down to $3,000,000,000. Revenue estimates will probably run over $4,000,000,000. Even with emergency relief expenditures still in the picture to the tune of $2,000,000,000 or more—probably more—the deficit would look much less menacing to right winners than it has in the last two years.

Also the emergency budget can be minimized by a little judicious jockeying of realiet appropriations already made but unspent. The President need only to ask authority to transfer funds from one allocation to another. Of course any savings from this sort of switching would be hypothetical—but they would make the total figures look closed to a balance.

Blow

A pretty little inside battle is in prospect at the American Bankers' association convention in New Orleans. The big bone of contention is the second vice presidency. Doesn't sound like much of a prize—but the second vice president becomes president two years later—so it does matter.

The original candidate was E. G. Bennett—manager of Marriner Eccles' chain of banks in Utah. Although a Republican, anti-new dealers and unit (as against group) bankers took strong exception to his selection. The informed say that Mr. Bennett was ready to withdraw in the interest of harmony until the opposition put up O. W. Adams of the Utah State National bank—a unit banker and no admirer of Eccles. Then he decided to make a scrap of it.

Later peace-lovers offered a compromise candidate in Frank E. Brooks of the First National bank of Pittsburgh—who attracted attention not long ago by urging bankers to fight criticisms aggressively. New York bankers are backing Brooks—on the private basis that an easterner is preferable to a westerner "at the present time." The only hitch is that he represents a national bank and this year is supposed to be the state bankers' turn. Brooks should win—but there's enough uncertainty in the situation to keep the boys in a dither. He and Adams might split the anti-Eccles vote and let Bennett in—which would be a terrible blow to confirmed right wingers.

Embargo

New York fears that Italy's cautious sounding of the United States on the question of trading under the Hull reciprocity deal gets nowhere. Such trade would conflict with the President's policy of discouraging all shipments during the war period.

Although all exports are not yet under embargo, the President will probably ask congress to enlarge the scope of the embargo as soon as congress meets. Then a tug-of-war will ensue, unless cotton, oil, coal, steel, copper and other interests have lost their punch.

Despite the strong sentiment against war trade, on the theory that it leads to war, a powerful element in congress stands for unrestricted exports of non-war materials on the ground that belligerents have no right to interfere with peaceful commerce. A total embargo against belligerents would have no walkover in congress. An embargo directed solely against Italy would have still harder sledding.

Assets

New Yorkers who are trying to appraise the political value to President Roosevelt of members of his entourage figure that Secretary Wallace, Chester Davis of the AAA, William I. Myers of the farm credit administration, Jesse Jones of the RFC, Joe Kennedy (if he can be induced to support his former chief actively) and—to some extent—Secretaries Morgenthau and Hull, will be political assets. Most of the other department, bureau and agency chiefs are frankly rated liabilities.

Pretty

It looked as if the SEC were going big-hearted when it granted temporary exception from registration to 11 security exchanges in smaller cities. But indications are that—even if exemption is made permanent—the exchanges will be sewed up in so many rules and regulations anyway that they will find "exemption" a pretty word and not much more. Shenanigans will be just as punishable outside of Wall Street as in it.

In Ohio History

(From the J. H. Galbraith collection of Ohio histories, written for The Associated Press.)

EARLY DAY EXPLOSION

What was probably the first major disaster in Ohio from high explosives occurred in Wayne county in 1809 and one result of it was the extinguishing of what might have proved a rival of Wooster as the chief center of population in what is now Wayne county.

A mill site was very desirable thing at that time in Ohio and Joseph Stibbs had found such a place on Apple Creek and set up a grist mill. Michael Switzer was sent to manage the place. It was doing a very satisfactory business when the explosion occurred and blew the place away.

Gunpowder was a leading commodity and it was kept in kegs. On this day several Indians were buying powder and as Switzer was getting it out a spark from one of the Indians' pipes blew into the keg. Switzer was killed but the Indians and several whites escaped with serious burns. The store and stock of goods was ruined.

IOWA HUSKER WINS 1935 CHAMPIONSHIP

Turns in 41.52 Bushels of Corn for New World Record at Contest in Indiana.

By The Associated Press

NEWTOWN, Ind., Nov. 9—Elmer Carlson of Audubon, Ia.—out where the tall corn grows—yesterday won the 12th annual national corn husking contest near here by turning in a world record-breaking 41.52 bushels of yellow Indiana corn.

The 26-year-old, 178-pound Elmer Carlson who had never been in the "big time" before, hit the hang-boards with a record load of 41.52 bushels.

Unheard of brfore, except in Iowa, he started away at the boom of the cannon just another "good shucker," but wound up his swift, methodical performance with the title, a $100 cash prize and the applause of 100,000 persons who tramped fences and tore down cornstalks in an effort to see the nation's best 18 huskers compete at the Leslie K. Mitchell farm.

The record was broken by several of the huskers participating in yesterday's contest. Irwin Bauman of Woodford county, Illinois, was second to the new champion with 39.06 bushels husked in the one hour and twenty minute contest. Lawrence Pilzer of Newtown, Indiana's champion, was third with 38.84 bushels; William Rose of Henry county, Illinois, fourth with 38.12 bushels.

Lester Galloway of Van Wert county, Ohio, was 12th with 32.70 and Raymond Kennedy of Paulding, O., 16th with 30.47.

Flanders Field," and a response will be given by Mrs. Hill. A salute by a firing squad will precede a period of three minutes of silence, which will be broken by the sounding of taps by Parks L. Kennedy and Robert Verberg. Benediction will be spoken by Rev. Halderman.

State highway patrolmen, members of Cooper Post No. 117, G. A. R., and its auxiliary, Mayor C. A. Bolin and city officials, city police and firemen, together with a band will form an escort for the parade scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

The first division headed by "Betsy Ross and her sister," will include the colors. George T. Geran as grand marshal, L. H. Larsen, chief of staff, E. H. Shade, aid, Boy Scout orderlies and a general staff including Dana Daniels, Norval Foreman, E. W. Koeppen, Harry Baker and James Messenger, Eagles band, massed flags and colors, Spanish war veterans, World war veterans and national guards.

The Harding High school band will head the second division which will include Mrs. Wilhelmina Rizor, chief of division, Mrs. Margaret Foreman, veterans' auxiliaries, colors, auxiliary, marching groups and fraternities.

In the third division will be Charles Howard as division chief, Fred Berg, aid, Boy Scout orderlies, patriotic, historical, fantastic and commercial floats.

The fourth division will include the Mardi Gras floats and marchers. Headed by Chris Turoff and Clyde Faust as aides, the section will be formed of Marion Voiture No. 48, 40 et 8 locomotive and box car, a tube band from the voiture and the Mardi Gras characters.

The parade will form on East Center street at Baker, go west on Center to Sinte, south on State to Church, west on church to Main, north on Main to Center and west on Center to Oliney avenue and Park boulevard. Characters in the Mardi Gras will be judged on their march at Main and Center streets.

Veterans of all wars are joining in the observance of the day, and the celebration promises to be the most elaborate to be held in Marion in several years. John V. Ruth is general chairman of the committee, Millard E. Baldwin is secretary and F. O. Tuttle, Jr., treasurer. The committee includes Commander Francis S. Layton of Cooper Post No. 117, G. A. R., George Plaiz of Marion Camp No. 32, United Spanish War Veterans, Dr. F. L. Thomas, Bird McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, Harry G. TWO HELD IN GALION ON THEFT CHARGES

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 9—Two Galion boys were apprehended by local police Friday on theft charges. Marion Foust, 15, who police say served two terms at the Lancaster Industrial school, was turned over to the juvenile court in Bucyrus Friday, and will be returned to Lancaster. Lloyd Foust, 18, who has been at the Lancaster institution four times, was bound over to the Crawford county grand jury under $500 bond. The boys confessed stealing two bicycles at the Junior High school on Wednesday.

TOWNSEND PENSION CLUB FORMED HERE

The Marion club is one of several Townsend clubs formed in this district during the present organization tour of the state workers. They reported that approximately 125 members were enrolled in a club formed at Kenton Thursday night and that the Bucyrus club of which Miss Sheldon is secretary has 385 members, while a No. 2 Townsend club recently formed in Bucyrus, composed of colored members, has an enrollment of 19. The Galion club is composed of 1,300 members, Mr. Pargeon, its president, said last night. A newly organized group in Upper Sandusky is reported to have more than 300 members.

No Age Limit

Membership in the Townsend clubs is not limited to those over 60 years of age, who would be eligible for a pension under the Townsend pension plan. Miss Sheldon of the Bucyrus No. 1 club, said approximately two-thirds of the membership of her group represents persons under 60 years of age.

The meeting was opened last night by Mr. Pargeon of Galion, who introduced Mr. Brough. In a brief talk Mr. Brough introduced the principal speaker, Mrs. Gabriel, who explained the Townsend pension plan in detail. Mrs. Gabriel, during the course of her talk, said it has been estimated by Townsend leaders that about 8,000,000 persons of 60 years of age or more would accept the $200 a month pension the Townsend plan would provide if the act is passed by the congress of the United States and becomes law. Half of this 8,000,000 are now holding jobs, she explained, and it would be necessary for them to give them up, thus releasing 4,000,000 jobs for younger men now unemployed.

The speaker declared that the amount of the Townsend pension was not arrived at by a haphazard guess, but was established after a thorough investigation of pension needs and ability of the government to meet the huge amount that would be expended monthly. The pension of $200 will induce men and women of 60 years of age and more to retire, opening jobs for millions, and it will become the duty of these older people to accept the "position" with the United States government as distributing agents of the wealth of the country, Mrs. Gabriel said. "We saved our way into the depression and now we must spend our way out of it," she asserted.

Mrs. Gabriel explained that the only requirement in connection with the pension is that the person receiving it must spend the entire $200 each month. Only 10 per cent of the amount can be given to the church and to charities. Travel is permitted—but travel in the United States only. Virtually every type of spending is permitted, including the building of homes, refinancing of mortgages, and remodeling of property.

Those who have an income from property are permitted to keep it, and the Townsend pension law would give them the additional amount needed to bring their income up to $200 a month, the speaker explained. For instance if a person had an income of $100 a month from property rental or other investments, he would receive another $100 in pension.

Sees Benefit To Business

Mrs. Gabriel declared the Townsend plan will benefit every business in Marion, through increased spending and greatly increased employment through jobs opened up by the retirement of those pensioned. She estimated there are more than 2,000 persons more than 60 years of age living in Marion.

"The Townsend plan can't help but work, but now how are we going to get it," Mrs. Gabriel asked. "Congress must pass the act at one of its sessions, and if congress does not do it at its next session this winter we must elect a congress that will pass it," she declared. Mrs. Gabriel said the Townsend clubs of America now have 30,000,000 members, and that the objective of the national leaders is to double this membership by the first of January. "If this can be accomplished congress will pass the act that provides for our pension plan at its next session," she asserted. She said the Townsend clubs are strongly organized in northwestern Ohio, and are now branching out all over the state to make Ohio a solid Townsend state.

In explaining how the Townsend pension plan would be financed by the government, Mrs. Gabriel explained that a part of Dr. Townsend's plan is to do away with many forms of taxation, and substitute a two per cent "transaction tax." This tax would raise one trillion 200 billion dollars annually, it has been estimated. The transaction tax would apply to every turnover of money in business. The tax works similarly to the gasoline and cigaret taxes, the speaker explained. "You wouldn't know you were paying it?" She pointed out that a few cents of the cost of a gallon of gasoline is tax, and that all over six cents in the cost of a package of cigarets goes to the government as tax. Mrs. Gabriel declared that approximately 85 per cent of the money of the country turns over in Wall Street, and that Wall Street would be paying 85 per cent on the transaction tax.

Mrs. Gabriel did not attempt to explain every point in the Townsend plan, but called attention to a book that is given to every member. The cost of a life membership in the Townsend clubs is 25 cents, and each member is given a book by Dr. Townsend, explaining in detail his pension plan.

Following the speeches members of the audience were given the privilege of putting questions to the speakers, which were answered from the platform.

Some of the questions and answers follow:

(Q)—Is there any danger of the supreme court ruling the Townsend plan unconstitutional?

(A)—Absolutely not. Those sponsoring the plan have had the best legal advice. If anything like that should happen, the people of the United States probably would amend the Constitution.

(Q)—What happens if a person doesn't spend the full $200 each month?

(A)—He or she would lose their pension.

(Q)—What will become of the old soldiers' pension?

(A)—That and all other pensions would be eliminated. There wouldn't be necessity for them.

(Q)—Would we be permitted to repair our homes, pay off mortgages and pay our debts with our pension money?

(A)—Absolutely. Any form of spending is permitted.

POLICEMEN DROP CURTAIN ON ARTIST MODEL SHOW

Five Out on $50 Bond Each After Performance Billed for Charity in New York.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 — Five artists' models were under wraps today and members of the Society of Illustrators were angry at the police department for stopping their annual show on a charge of indecency.

The models, billed as performers for charity, were free after arraignment under $50 bail each.

Versions of the arrests differed. The police said the girls were too scantily clad; members of the audience said opinion depended on one's artistic approach to the problem.

Detectives hailed the performance. Eight hundred men in evening dress, including some of the nation's most prominent illustrators, authors and business men, were in the audience when the police walked in.

A sketch called "The Conqueror" had just ended when the detectives made their presence known. All at once Fred G. Cooper, the manager of the show, strode onto the stage visibly perturbed and said everything was off.

Police insisted that "off" was the trouble—that the models' clothes were too much off of course opinion differed on that too.

Two men came up on the stage and the audience, which had taken the interruption as a joke, began to see it was not. One of the men was a little embarrassed. He was a detective, he said. He flashed his badge to show he really was, and said, "the show is really off."

Everybody still was a little incredulous. Then Herbert Bayard Swope, head of the state racing commission, took the stage and said it was a "pinch" and would everybody please leave quietly. So the curtain came down and the crowd left.

Courtney Riley Cooper commented, choosing his adjectives meticulously, "the show was risque but not indecent."

One of the uniformed police stationed in front of the theater where the show was put on, said "them plain clothes guys have a lot of nerve. I wouldn't have raided the place for a million."

FLIERS STILL HOPE TO FIND AUSTRALIAN

Was Forced Down

In a flight from Australia to England, in March, 1929, his famous plane, the Southern Cross, was forced down 100 miles from Wyndham, western Australia, after 12 days of intensive search he and his companions were rescued. He later completed the journey in 13½ days, a record.

In 1930 he flew the historic Southern Cross over the Atlantic from Portmarnock, Ireland, to New York with a stop en route at Harbor Grace, Nfld.

Sir Charles married Mary Powell of Hawthorn, Australia, in December, 1930. They have a son.

The record Kingsford-Smith sought to break in his latest flight was 70 hours, 59 minutes, 30 seconds set by C. W. A. Scott and Tom Campbell-Black last year in the London-Melbourne air derby.

FORMER RESIDENT OF MARION IS DEAD

Mrs. Laura Kimberling Passes Away at Upper Sandusky.

Mrs. Laura Cook Kimberling, 57, a former resident of Marion, died of a cerebral hemorrhage today at 5:45 a. m. at her home at Upper Sandusky. She was ill only a short time.

Mrs. Kimberling was a member of the First Church of the Brethren in Marion, where the funeral will be conducted Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be made in the Nevada cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, Philip Sheridan Kimberling, and a sister, Rev. Mary L. Cook of Pontiac, Mich.

Mrs. Kimberling was a native of the vicinity of Nevada.

MRS. WILLIAM HALEY CLARIDON HOSTESS

Special to The Star

CLARIDON, Nov. 9 — Mrs. William Haley was hostess to 20 members of the Claridon Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. O. Haley conducted a business meeting and Mrs. M. C. Haley led devotionals. Raymond Auld, Evelyn and George Horton were guests. The society will meet Nov. 21 with Mrs. Ed. Kearan.

RED CROSS WORKERS SET FOR ROLL CALL

town stores and offices and the industrial division of which Frank Edmundson is head, will begin the campaign in Marion shops, factories, and industrial plants.

The soliciting in the residential districts will get under way Tuesday morning under the direction of Mrs. Paul Knauss, and will continue for at least three days, until every home in the city has been visited and all members of every family have been given the privilege of becoming a member.

Working with Mr. Hamor in the business district will be George Alber, John Dugan, Rex Ranier, J. E. Murphy, Frank M. Knapp and John Smith.

The industrial committee which set up its part of the drive this week by appointing key men in each factory, shop and plant to personally conduct the campaign, is composed of Mr. Edmundson, James C. Woods, R. M. Martin, Rev. James O. Dodd of the Central Christian church, J. W. Llewellyn, Paul Bachman, Sam Love and Charles Howard.

Stores in which the work of the Red Cross is depicted either by a display or by posters are the Ubler-Phillips Co., Frank Bros. Co., Van Atta Hardware store, National City Bank & Trust Co., the H. Schaffner Co. and the Kroger master store.

Reviews Work

The chapter today reviewed the work which it carries on in Marion county, in service to veterans and their families, in conducting first aid classes, teaching boys and girls, men and women the technique of life saving, in giving nursing service through a loan closet, in interesting boys and girls in constructive leisure pastimes through the Junior Red Cross and in providing layettes, pneumonia jackets, Christmas bags and other comforts for veterans' hospitals, in providing milk and wafers for 200 undernourished school children, and for the nursing service. Although Marion as yet has had no need for the disaster committee's aid, E. L. Hill, chairman, and his committee are prepared should an emergency call be sent from any part of the county.

Fifty cents of each membership of one dollar or more will go to national Red Cross in Washington, D. C., to carry on its relief work in devastated sections and to aid veterans.

Mayor Urges Support

Mayor C. A. Bolin, urging a strong support of the roll call, issued the following proclamation today:

"The date of the annual roll call for the Marion County chapter of the American Red Cross has been set for the week beginning on Armistice day, Nov. 11.

"Workers who helped in the roll call last year turned from their solicitation to carry on the year's program of relief for victims of accident, disaster and disease.

"They come to us now with another appeal for membership dues that will finance the work of another year. Since Red Cross asks so little from the community and contributes so much itself to the general welfare, I hope and urge those who are asked for the relatively small participation of paying the annual membership fee will respond promptly again this year.

"The relief program of the Red Cross is recognized by city officials as a potent factor in meeting present needs, and as an agency of incalculable value in the event of possible emergency.

"I, therefore, as mayor of Marion hereby set aside the designated period as the time when all past members will be asked to renew their memberships and those who have not enrolled before to add their names to the ranks of Red Cross members in Marion county."

GALION, CARDINGTON GROUPS AT MEETING

Members from Galion and Cardington tents were guests at a dinner preceding the annual inspection of the work of Harriett Beecher Stowe Tent No. 48, Daughters of Union Veterans, Thursday night at the Legion Dugout. The work of the tent was inspected by Mrs. Nana Malkmus of Tiffin, department inspector. Commander Francis Layton of the G. A. R. post was a guest. Mrs. Malkmus was presented a gift from the tent by Mrs. D. E. Montgomery. Several of the members went to Galion yesterday to attend an inspection meeting and plans have been made to attend an inspection Monday at North Lewisburg.

Roads To Be Built

Scouting bands swept the territory around the new Fascist possessions in the northern sector. Engineering squads prepared to push roads forward through undeveloped terrain.

The invading forces counted the cost of the northern advance at 36 dead and 81 wounded, most of whom were native Askari.

Ras Haile Selassie Gugsa, traitor Makale governor who deserted to the Italians, announced he wanted to go to Rome "to see the king and Mussolini."

Installed as new governor of Tigre province, he expects no opposition from the natives because "I am their ruler."

Defenders Massed in Mountain Peaks

BY JAMES A. MILLS,
Associated Press Foreign Staff.

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 9—Ethiopian officials conceded today the loss of Makale on the northern front, but asserted the Italian armies' most difficult task was still ahead, with Ethiopians massing in mountain positions 15 miles south of Makale.

The mountains there tower 11,000 and 12,000 feet, presenting formidable barriers to artillery, tanks and even airplanes.

Critical battles were expected in this area, described by military experts as the key sector in the conflict.

GROUP TO OPPOSE TAXES IS FORMED

Marion C. of C. Secretary Addresses Delaware Committee.

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 9—The Delaware County Inter-Organization Conference committee was organized Thursday in Delaware county to oppose any move to create new state taxes for 1936.

W. D. Brown, secretary of the Marion Chamber of Commerce, pointed out in the principal talk of the evening that Ohio needs no new taxes next year. Fred E. Huntsberger was elected chairman, and Mrs. Eleanor M. Oehler, secretary.

Other members of the county committee are W. B. Galleher, J. L. Sperling, L. C. Wilson, Harry Campbell, Raymond Siegfried, W. F. Via, E. R. Tillon, G. K. Hoffman, H. S. Kinsey, Dr. J. K. James, James A. Neville, W. S. Pollock, J. H. Buck, G. Ross Wertz and William McElfresh.

REVIVAL TO OPEN AT CARDINGTON

A two-week evangelistic campaign will open at the Church of the Nazarene in Cardington Sunday in charge of the pastor, Rev. F. H. Wasson. The Barnes Sisters from Lisbon, chalk artists and musicians, will assist in the service. Meetings will be held each night at 7:30 through Nov. 24.

MRS. EMMA ROBERTS DIES NEAR MORRAL

Special to The Star

MORRAL, Nov. 9—Mrs. Emma Kennedy Roberts, 79, wife of Madison Roberts, died at 4:45 a. m. today at her home five miles southwest of here. She had been ill three weeks.

Born in Tully township Jan. 23, 1856, to William and Margaret Shank Kennedy, natives of Pennsylvania, she resided practically all her life in Marion county. Her marriage to Mr. Roberts took place Feb. 17, 1876, in Tully township. She had been a member of the Methodist church since she was 16 years of age.

Surviving are her husband and the following children: Branch Roberts of near Marion, Wesley Roberts of south of Morral, Mrs. Riena Likens of near Caledonia, Irvin and Miss Fern Roberts at home. A sister, Mrs. Margaret Hill of Caledonia, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the home. Burial will be in the Grand Prairie cemetery.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Huniman of 830 Oak Grove avenue are parents of a daughter born Tuesday. She has been named Joyce Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas of southeast of Marion are the parents of a daughter born this morning at the City hospital.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Riegler of Canton, Oct. 31, at Mercy hospital in that city. Mrs. Riegler was formerly Miss Irenaea Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Teresa Sullivan of 289 South Vine street.

C. H. ISALY TO HEAD NEW COLUMBUS DAIRY PLANT

$150,000 Plant Will Be Built on North High Street; Retail Stores To Be Opened.

Announcement was made in Columbus today that the Isaly Co., headed by Charles H. Isaly of Marion who also is manager of the Isaly Dairy Co. of this city, will build a $150,000 dairy plant on North High street in Columbus to serve approximately 20 retail stores the company plans to open in that city.

The new company, organized in an expansion program of the Isaly dairy interests which now operate in Marion, Mansfield, Youngstown, Akron, Upper Sandusky, Canton and Pittsburgh, Pa., will not affect the operations of the Marion plant, it was announced.

The proposed new dairy and store will be housed in a two-story building, 140 feet long and 80 feet deep, to be opened not later than May 1. The way was cleared for construction of the plant when Columbus city council last night passed an ordinance to change the zoning of a block on North High street that has been selected as a site.

Mr. Isaly will be a partner in the business with his uncle, Henry R. Isaly, now a cheese dealer in Columbus.

The latest expansion move of the Isaly interests follows growth of the group of dairies they operate. Charles W. Isaly, uncle of Charles H. Isaly of Marion, became interested in the cheese business in Columbus in 1889 and was joined by his brother, Henry R. Isaly, a year later. Another brother, William, father of Charles H. of Marion, Samuel and Henry W. Isaly, who are now in active charge of the manufacturing end, established a small plant in Mansfield in 1899. It was one of the first milk pasteurizing plants in the state. Later, plants at Marion and Youngstown were built.

The Isalys have sprung from a long line of dairy men. It was a grandfather of the present generation of Isalys, a cheese maker from the "Swiss Alps," who brought his copper cheese kettle to the United States in 1833 and at once began dairy farming in Monroe county, where the Isalys have been prominent in the dairy industry ever since.

The late William Isaly made Swiss cheese 60 years ago at the present home farm of Sem Isaly in Monroe county, a brother of Jesse Isaly who now is in charge of the Mansfield plant.

Today, the Isaly Dairy Co. operates manufacturing plants in Youngstown, Marion, Mansfield, Akron, Upper Sandusky, Canton and Pittsburgh and maintains 175 retail stores in central and northern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. The company has incorporated separately its different plants. When the Pittsburgh plant was incorporated, there were 43 Isalys interested as stockholders. The Marion company serves 12 retail Isaly stores.

NEWS OF STAGE AND SCREEN

TWO FINE PICTURES COMING TO MARION

"Barretts of Wimpole Street" and "Hell's Angels" Booked for Next Week.

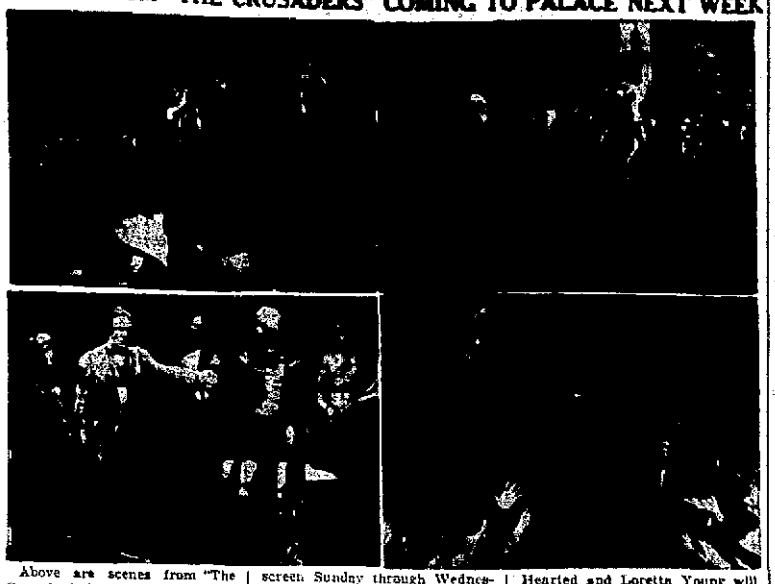
Of first importance in the Marion's program for the coming week are return showings of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" on Tuesday and Wednesday, and "Hell's Angels" on the opening program Sunday and Monday.

The showing of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," judged one of the 10 best pictures of 1934, on a double feature program with "Guard That Girl," will be sponsored by the Burroughs Nature Study club. Norma Shearer, Fredric March, Charles Laughton—who gives an unforgettable performance as the father—Maureen O'Sullivan, Una O'Connor and Katharine Alexander are the stars and featured players in "The Barretts." Many theater fans missed the picture on its first-run showing here and many have been anticipating a second viewing since its return was first announced. Florence Rice, daughter of Grantland Rice, and Robert Allen who was with Grace Moore in "Love Me Forever," play the leads in "Guard That Girl," which has to do with an heiress who believes her life has been threatened by jealous relatives and the hazardous exploits of two young private detectives who are given the job of guarding her until she inherits the estate.

"Hell's Angels," the $4,000,000 picture in which some of the most thrilling air scenes ever filmed add to the general excellence of the film, has gone down in motion picture history as the picture which introduced platinum-blond Jean Harlow. Ben Lyon, James Hall and Miss Harlow are featured. The picture offers the first authentic reproduction of the famous wartime Zeppelin raid on London. On the same bill will be "Streamline Express," featuring Victor Jory and Evelyn Venable.

"Father Brown, Detective," will turn on the Thursday to Saturday bill with a Zane Grey western in which Larry Crabbe, Dean Jagger of the Broadway stage, Gail Patrick, Anna Q. Nilson who was off the screen too long, Trixie Friganza, grand old lady of the stage, and Raymond Hatton from an unusually strong cast for a western picture. Walter Connolly plays the title role in G. K. Chesterton's "Father Brown," picture. With his umbrella under his arm and a piece of chocolate in his pocket, Connolly calmly catches England's most sensational diamond thief. Paul Lukas plays the role of the charming international crook. Gertrude Michael provides the love interest.

SCENES FROM "THE CRUSADERS" COMING TO PALACE NEXT WEEK



Above are scenes from "The Crusades," the spectacle which will be on the Palace theater screen Sunday through Wednesday. Henry Wilcoxon will play the role of Richard the Lion-Hearted and Loretta Young will appear opposite him as Berengaria, daughter of the King of Navarre.

Story of King Richard Told in Palace Picture

"The Crusades," a DeMille Production With 12th Century Setting, Opens Sunday.

One of the most colorful, romantic, and glorious periods of the world's history, the Twelfth century, in which Richard the Lion-Hearted, was one of the most glamorous figures, has been brought to the screen by Cecil B. DeMille in the picture, "The Crusades," which will be shown at the Palace Sunday through Wednesday.

Henry Wilcoxon, the brawny Antony to Claudett Colbert's "Cleopatra" in the film of that name, plays "Richard the Lion-Hearted, King of England" in "The Crusades." Playing opposite him is Loretta Young as "Berengaria," daughter of the King of Navarre.

A supporting cast worthy of a spectacle as great as the theme it portrays is headed by Ian Keith as "Saladin, Sultan of Islam," Katherine DeMille as "Alice, Princess of France," C. Aubrey Smith as "The Hermit," the only man with the courage to defy Saladin who persecutes the Christian pilgrims to the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. Joseph Schildkraut as "Conrad of Montferrat," Alan Hale as "Blondel the Minstrel," C. Henry Gordon as "Philip, King of France," George Barbier as "Sancho, King of Navarre," Montagu Love as "The Blacksmith," Lumsden Hare as "Robert, Earl of Leicester," William Farnum as "Hugo, Duke of Burgundy," and Hobart Bosworth as "Frederick Duke of the Germans." Pedro de Cordoba who appeared in his last film 20 years ago, was brought from the New York stage to play a minor role.

More than 10,000 extras are in this story of the immense pattern of the world marching in arms inspired by a holy cause.

The largest class in archery ever to receive group instruction was conducted by Earl S. Powell, one of America's leading authorities on medieval war-weapons when he taught 500 extras the use of the crossbow and longbow.

A brand-new picture, "Grand Exit," will be shown on Thursday with the stage show, "Strollers' Club Minstrels." Edmund Lowe and Ann Sothern are featured in the picture.

The Friday and Saturday picture will be a William Powell starring vehicle, "Rendezvous," in which Powell, a young crossword-puzzle editor becomes the nemesis of enemy spies through his genius in counter-espionage work.

Rosalind Russell plays the leading feminine role. Major Herbert O. Yardley, organizer and head of the famous American Black Chamber during the World war, supervised the technical details of the picture. As head of the Black Chamber, Major Yardley tracked and captured many notorious enemy spies through interception and deciphering of enemy codes and discovery of secret inks impregnated in their clothing.

Bibbie Barnes, the comedienne from London, appears as an alluring spy who almost upsets all of Powell's secret work. Lionel Atwill, screen menace in recent pictures, plays the role of a British attache.

Harding Loses to Shelby, 21-0, in Last N. C. O. Game

UNCERTAINTY FILLS AIR AS GRID TEAMS CLASH AGAIN TODAY

Notre Dame at Northwestern; Ohio State at Chicago; Minnesota Meets Iowa.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—Uncertainty filled the air today as the football legions clashed again.

Dominating the interest was Notre Dame, unbeaten, and untied, last period conquerors of the "unbeatable" forces of Ohio State. Notre Dame faced Northwestern with victory possible for the Fighting Irish.

The "if" in this case was because Andy Pilney, hero of the Ohio State game, and several others were relegated to the sidelines with injuries.

California vs. Washington

On the coast the Golden Bears of California faced a stiff assignment in Washington's huskies. Marquette, unbeaten and untied, encountered a Michigan State team which has known days of greatness.

Minnesota, picked as tops in the Big Ten, was expected to defeat Iowa with the element of doubt here in the person of Ozzie Simmons, the Negro Hawkeye flash.

In the east, Pennsylvania encountered Navy in a game as tough as any to predict.

Columbia, meeting with slight success so far this year, had a chance to regain prestige by bowling Syracuse from the undefeated, untied class.

Princeton Meets Harvard

Princeton's fast traveling aggregation meets an old foe in Harvard. Other games in the east are Yale-Brown, Dartmouth-William and Mary, Boston College-Western Maryland, Pittsburgh-Army, Catholic-West Virginia Wesleyan, Holy Cross-Carnegie, Manhattan-Lasalle, Penn State-Villanova.

Fordham, which tied Pitt last week, was dated with the heavy team of St. Mary's in a speculative intersectional game.

Alabama was to meet Clemson in the south with victory expected for the Crimson tide. But picking the winner of the Georgia Tech-Auburn, Tulane-Georgia, Louisiana State-Mississippi State and Tennessee-Mississippi games was not so easy.

Vanderbilt played Sewanee; Davison, Duke; Virginia Poly, North Carolina State, and North Carolina, Virginia Military.

Bucks Take on Chicago

Chicago had a dangerous engagement with Ohio State in the midwest. Other games were Wisconsin-Purdue, Illinois-Michigan, Nebraska-Kansas, Iowa State-Kansas State and Missouri-Oklahoma.

The Baylor-Texas and the Rice-Arkansas clashes stood out in the southwest.

Southern California faced Stanford, Idaho met Washington State and Montana tangled with Gonzaga. Utah was expected to overcome Colorado to take the mountain leadership.

Friday Games

Last night Texas Christian preserved its unbeaten, untied record by downing Loyola of New Orleans 14-0.

In other night games, George Washington blanked Davis Elkins 53-7; Union University beat Tennessee Tech, 34-0, and Louisiana Tech downed Mississippi College 21-7. In the midwest, North Dakota shaded St. Louis 7-6, One set Knox back 13-7, Upper Iowa whitewashed Iowa Wesleyan 52-0, and Dubuque beat Parsons 3-2. Nebraska Wesleyan downed Doane 32-6.

Lost Ball Costs Marion Best Opening To Score

Outcome Has No Bearing on President's Position in League; Hart Stars for Whippets.

In their final North Central Ohio Conference game of the 1935 season, the Harding High football team suffered a 21 to 0 defeat at the hands of the strong Shelby team last night at the W. W. Skiles athletic field in Shelby.

Marion's best scoring opportunity came during the fourth quarter, when it advanced the ball to Shelby's 2-yard line. But a bad pass from center, juggled by Frazier, was recovered by the Shelby men behind their own goal line, and the ball was put in play on the Shelby 20-yard line.

Hart, 180-pound fullback, led the attack for the Shelby Whippets. Termed by Coach Edwin Winsper as, "one of the greatest fullbacks ever to don a Shelby uniform," Hart received credit for two touchdowns scored in the first 10 minutes of play. Early in the final quarter he scored the third touchdown on a 27-yard run around left end.

"Played Hard Game"—Cramer

The Harding Presidents played a hard game throughout the entire four quarters, Coach Carl Cramer said of his men, following the game, "Every one was playing a hard and fast game up to the last minute. It was just that we couldn't stop one exceptionally good man."

Outcome of the Shelby-Marion game last night had little bearing on the N. C. O. race for leadership. The victory gave Shelby a standing of .600 with three games won and two lost. Marion's percentage dropped to .200 with one victory and four defeats. Neither team changed its position in the N. C. C. race, which is being led by the Mansfield Tygers with no defeats in three games. Ashland is in second place with three victories in four games. Shelby third, Galion fourth and Marion fifth.

First Quarter

Shelby began its first touchdown march from the opening kick-off. Receiving Sharrock's kick on the Shelby 10-yard line, the Whippets returned it to their own 45-yard line. Anderson picked up 15 yards around the left of the line on the first running play. Consistent gains through and around the line gave Shelby a first down on the Marion 13-yard line. From that point Hart scored the touchdown through the right side of the line, and Haun carried the ball for the extra point. Shelby 7, Marion 0.

Duffy, acting captain for Marion elected to kick after the touchdown. Sharrock kicked for Marion and Haun received for Shelby and returned the ball 10 yards.

The Whippets continued to drive consistently to the second touchdown. After advancing by a series of line plays to the Marion 29-yard line, Hart's pass over the line to Haun was good for a 15-yard gain and a first down on the Marion 14-yard line. Hart circled left end for the touchdown on the following play and his kick at placement was good for the point after. Shelby 14, Marion 0.

Hart kicked for Shelby to the Marion 5-yard line. Evans received for Marion and returned the ball to the Marion 45-yard line. Sharrock picked up a yard through left end and Frazier gained five yards through left tackle. Failing to gain on the following play, Marion punted. Frazier's quick kick went out of bounds on the Shelby 12-yard line.

Peacock tackled Hart after a 5-yard gain. Harding was penalized five yards for offside, and on the following play Shelby was given a similar penalty. Several plays netted little gain and Hart punted to the Marion 15-yard line where the Shelby quarterback, Anderson, downed the ball.

Evans returned the punt on the first down to the Shelby 45-yard line. Shade received the ball and was tackled by Frazier and Brady for no return. Hart gained one yard making it second down and nine with the ball on the Shelby 44-yard line as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

In the second quarter Hart registered only small gain on several line plays. Hart punted to Marion's 29 yard line where the ball was received by Frazier. A quick-kick was returned on the next play, the ball going out on the Shelby 17-yard line. With a series of line plays and a 15-yard penalty on Harding for unnecessary roughness, the Whippets advanced to the Marion 10-yard line Hart went over the goal line but was called back and Shelby was penalized 5 yards for clipping. On the fourth down Castner broke through the Shelby line to stop Hart for a 5-yard loss.

It was Marion's ball on its own 10-yard line as it lost a yard on the first play. A five-yard gain by Frazier and a 5-yard penalty against Shelby for holding gave the President a first down.

Frazier picked up another nice gain and made it first and ten on the Marion 41-yard line. Frazier's attempt at the line was held for no gain and his attempted pass was incomplete. Frazier punted to the Shelby 10-yard line and the ball was returned to the Shelby 32-yard line, Castner making the tackle. Shelby advanced by a series of line plays to the Marion 34-yard line as the half ended. Shelby 14, Marion 0.

Third Quarter

Hart kicked for Shelby to open the third quarter. Evans received on the Marion 20-yard line and returned 12 yards. After no gain on two trys at the line, Frazier kicked to the Shelby 35-yard line. Reynolds fumbled in receiving the ball and Ruby recovered for Marion. Marion gained a first down and then lost possession of the ball on the Shelby 25-yard line as Peacock fumbled.

Hart was spilled for a 5-yard loss by Brady. Hart punted to Frazier on the Marion 35-yard line. Frazier broke loose on the return and advanced 35 yards before being brought down on the Shelby 35-yard line by Haun. Four consecutive passes, one into the end zone, were incomplete and Shelby regained possession of the ball.

After registering no gain in two line plays Hart punted to the Marion 28-yard line where the ball was downed by Shelby's quarterback, Anderson. Frazier immediately returned the kick to Shelby's 46-yard line and Reynolds was run out of bounds for no gain on the return of the punt.

Hart gained 11 yards for a first down on the Marion 43-yard line. Shelby was penalized five yards for offsides. After little gain in two trys at the line Hart punted to Evans on the Marion 5-yard line. Evans returned the punt 5 yards.

Frazier punted to the Shelby 45-yard line. Reynolds received and returned 28 yards when he was brought down by Sharrock as the quarter ended. Shelby 14, Marion 0.

Fourth Quarter

Shelby had possession of the ball with a first down on the Marion 27-yard line as the final quarter opened. On the first play in the fourth quarter Hart started around left end, cut back, and scored standing up. Reynolds tallied the extra point through the line. Shelby 21, Marion 0.

Shelby's kick-off to Marion was received by Frazier on the Marion 35-yard line and returned 23 yards. A pass, Evans to Lewis, was good for a first down on the Marion 47-yard line. Evans' next attempt to pass was incomplete and Frazier lost 5 yards on the following play. A pass to Sharrock from Frazier was good for a first down on the Shelby 35-yard line.

The Presidents received another first down on the Shelby 20-yard line as the Whippets were penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness. The Shelby team held for downs as two Marion passes were incomplete.

Duffy, Marion right tackle, broke through to bring Hart down for a 5-yard loss. Hart punted to the Marion 45-yard line and Frazier returned the ball 13 yards to the Shelby 42-yard line. Frazier's pass dropped through Chizmar's hands as he was receiving on the Shelby 14-yard line. Frazier circled right end for a 12-yard gain.

Frazier passed from the Shelby 32-yard line to Peacock, who received on the 18-yard line. Peacock ran to within three yards of a touchdown where he was knocked out of bounds by Hart. With first down and goal to go on the Shelby 3-yard line, Frazier picked up one yard around left end. He was held for no gain on the second down. The next pass from center was low and when Frazier attempted to scoop up the ball he knocked it over the goal line. Shelby recovered and the ball was given to Shelby with a first down on their own 20-yard line.

Hart quick-kicked to the Marion 30-yard line where the ball was down by Shelby players. Williams went through for a 12-yard gain for the Presidents to the Marion 42-yard line. After no gain at the line and an incompleted pass, Frazier kicked to the Shelby 32-yard line. Kaler received the kick and returned five yards. Hart immediately punted for Shelby and the ball was downed on the Marion 18-yard line.

Frazier gained 12 yards around the end and on the following play his pass to Peacock was good for nine yards. Marion's last minute passing attempt was incomplete, as the game ended. Shelby 21, Marion 0.

WESLEYAN-RESERVE CONTEST CENTER OF OHIO GRID INTEREST

Xavier Clashes with Centre; Ohio U. Meets Muskingum; Kenyon Plays Mt. Vernon.

By The Associated Press

Ohio college football fans flocked to Delaware, O., today, lured by the prospect that the Ohio Wesleyan-Western Reserve clash would furnish the greatest number of thrills.

Reserve's record of six victories and no defeats or ties gave the Red Cats a slight edge but the Cleveland outfit rated Wesleyan as extremely dangerous because of the Bishops' triumph over Cincinnati last week.

The Red Cats counted heavily on Ray Zeh, sensational fullback and the nation's leading scorer, to pass them to victory over the Buckeye conference team.

Marietta's eleven, victorious last week over Denison, came to Bowling Green with considerable confidence.

Kenyon faced Mount Union without the services of Harry McGinness, Cleveland halfback, who is injured. Oberlin took on Wooster with two men, Wickenden and Spears, expected to be on the sidelines.

Baldwin-Wallace's powerful Yellow Jackets, the leading team scorers of the state, entertained Kent State at Berea, with Coach Ray Walls planning to count considerably on his running attack.

Other attractions today included such battles as: Ohio university-Muskingum; Akron-Heidelberg; Findlay-John Carroll; Hiram-Capital; Ashland-Otterbein; Wittenberg-Ohio Northern; Marshall-Cincinnati; Canisius-Dayton; Adrian, Mich., at Miami; Kalamazoo-Bluffton and Transylvania-Denison.

Case plays at W. & J.; Defiance at St. Mary's; Rio Grande at Fairmount; Alfred Holbrook at Morehead Teachers; Toledo at onlville university and Wilberforce at St. Louis U.

MT. GILEAD DEFEATS LOUDONVILLE, 26-0

Ready To Meet Mansfied Madison in Mid-State League Title Game.

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, O., Nov. 9—Mt. Gilead High gridders defeated Loudonville High, 26 to 0, here yesterday, and today prepared to meet Mansfield Madison High here next Friday in a game that will decide the championship of the Mid-State league, Madison and Mt. Gilead are the only teams undefeated in league contests.

Payne, quarterback for Mt. Gilead, carried the ball for three of Mt. Gilead's touchdowns and two of his kicks after touchdowns were good. Weller scored the other counter on a line play.

Payne ran 40 yards to put the ball in scoring position for Weller in the first quarter and then scored the second touchdown before the quarter ended by taking the ball on a 31-yard end run. Almost duplicating this in the third period, he ran 22 yards for another. After Payne had passed to Richardson for a 37-yard gain, Payne took the ball over two yards for the final touchdown.

2 CALIFORNIANS CUE FAVORITES

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 9—Two youthful Californians, Jay Boseman of Vallejo and Welker Cochrane of San Francisco ruled today as favorites to win the 1935 world's three-cushion billiard championship.

They shot to the front as a result of sensational performances in the second round play yesterday, with the bespectacled Boseman downing Allen Hall of St. Louis 50 to 20 in the shortest game of the tournament to date—32 innings. Previously Cochran smothered the Japanese threat, Kinrey Matsuyama of Tokyo, in a game that went 33 innings, defeating his opponent 50 to 33. Cochrane, present 18.2 balkline champion, and holder of the three cushion title in 1933, also made the highest run of the tournament to date, clicking off nine billiards on his first turn at the table.

ANDY PILNEY
LEFT HALFBACK, NOTRE DAME
ANDY HAS THE UNUSUAL ABILITY TO CHANGE DIRECTION WITH ONE STEP WHEN MOST BACKS REQUIRE TWO.
INCREASED NEARLY FOUR YARDS A TRIP LAST YEAR EXCLUSIVE OF SEVERAL LONG RETURNS OF PUNTS AND KICKOFFS.

Special to The Star

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Nov. 9—The story of Andy Pilney, great hearted spearhead of Notre Dame's winning drives against Ohio State and Navy, goes back further than either of these games.

If any Notre Dame player can be singled out as being more responsible than any other for Notre Dame's amazing series of comebacks which have resulted in nine consecutive victories for the Irish, it is the speedy, talented, flame-spirited boy from Harrison Technical high school in Chicago.

The picture goes back to the second half of the 1934 Northwestern-Notre Dame game. The Irish had won three games and they had lost three, two of the defeats having fallen the two weeks before the Wildcat game. Northwestern led, 7 to 0 at the half. George Melinkovich punched over a touchdown, but the try for extra point was unsuccessful. Northwestern still led, 7 to 6.

In a march starting near mid-field, and marred by constant checking of signals and apparent confusion in the Notre Dame backfield, the Irish came to the Northwestern 14-yard line, 8 yards in from the right side of the field. The team lined up, but again some one checked signals. Quarterback Bud Boner turned around and walked back to talk to Steve Miller, sophomore fullback. While they were apparently arguing, the ball came back to Pilney who set out on a bee-line for the left corner of the field. He crossed the goal line with an amazing burst of speed and Notre Dame went ahead. The Irish scored again to win, 20 to 7.

This running of Pilney's on the now-famous "sleeper" play showed Notre Dame players could come back from behind. They have not lost a game since then. Against Army the next week, they were tied 6 to 6, until the closing minutes, but won, 12 to 6. Against Southern California, they fumbled, after receiving the kickoff, but stood off a Trojan march and turned around to win, 14 to 0. This year they trailed Carnegie Tech, 3 to 0, at the half, but won, 14 to 3. They trailed Pitt 6 to 0 and then came back to win, 9 to 6 in the closing minutes. Saturday they were apparently hopelessly beaten, 13 to 0, at the half, but scored 18 points in the final 13 minutes to win their ninth straight game at the expense of Ohio State.

The spirit of Pilney, who is probably through for the season, will guide his mates and his successors for years to come, just as the names of Knute Rockne, George Gipp, and Joe Sullivan spurred Pilney Saturday.

Still not a great team mechanically, in the opinion of their own coaches, these Fighting Irishmen of Notre Dame do, however, live up to their pseudonym to prove that football is still won on spirit and fight. And Andy Pilney is the boy who started them on this confident, fighting victory trail, and then climaxed it Saturday against Ohio State.

4-POINT MARGIN WINS IN SHOOT

Four points was the deciding margin in the target shoot held last night at the Eagle range when R. Feld's No. 1 team won over Schneider's No. 4 team by a score of 1,936 to 1,932.

One of the highest individual scores of the current season was registered by R. Feld when he hit the mark for 450. The next shoot will be held Tuesday night when teams No. 1 and 3 meet.

Losers To Play Harding High in New Stadium at Marion on Nov. 16.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, O., Nov. 9—Willard High school defeated Bucyrus, 26 to 14, here last night. It was the sixth straight victory of the season for Willard, which has lost only to Galion this season.

Langhurst, Willard fullback, led the drives that scored a touchdown for the visitors in each quarter. In runs of 20, 25 and 40 yards, he scored three touchdowns, and place-kicked two extra points. Hammock, right half, scored the other touchdown for Willard.

Russell Carle and Bob Dye, related distantly to Ohio State's Harrison (Tippy) Dye, scored touchdown for the losing Bucyrus team. Culver, quarterback, kicked both extra points. Approximately 1,000 saw the "Dad's day" game.

Bucyrus will go to Marion Nov. 16 to meet Harding High gridders in their new stadium.

H. C. KLINK BARN
BUCYRUS, OHIO

Mr. Magness will have another good load of horses here on above date, consisting of Teams, Single Horses and Mares, and also some of those good rugged Colts that will make money for any body that buys them. I believe it will pay you to attend these sales whether you need horses badly or not, if you have a place that you can keep them. At the present prices of feed they will pay you better returns than anything else I know of that you can put the same amount of money into. Will also have several Home Horses again for this sale.

All horses guaranteed as represented on day of sale and we make our guarantee good. All horses sold without reserve.

RED CROSS PROGRAMS ON TWO RADIO NETS

First Broadcast Tonight Includes Admiral Grayson and Kate Smith.

Tonight over a coast-to-coast network of the Columbia Broadcasting system from 10 to 11 p. m. the American Red Cross will go on the air. From key points throughout the United States the services of the Red Cross will be dramatized; services such as disaster relief in the late Florida hurricanes, thrilling life-saving rescues, first aid to the injured on the highway and in industry.

Appearing on the program will be such personages as Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the American National Red Cross, known to thousands of Americans as the personal physician to presidents, Kate Smith and her orchestra.

Radio listeners are also urged to tune in on the coast to coast program of the NBC on Nov. 11, Armistice day. The Red Cross, which continues to serve disabled World war veterans, begins its annual roll call on Armistice day. This program will be carried over NBC stations from 10:30 to 11 p. m. The program will deal with the Red Cross history from its first founding in the United States by Clara Barton, intrepid nurse of Civil war fame, to the present date of its wide-spread and universally admired organization.

These two Red Cross programs have been designed specifically as an educational feature to show the people of America what becomes of the dollar they give each year in the roll call, but as pure entertainment they bring to radio audiences the best in dramatic and musical talent.

DECISION OF LOWER COURT IS AFFIRMED

Appellate Judges Uphold Verdict Returned Here in Retterer Case.

A decision in the partition action of John G. Retterer against William Retterer and others has been handed down by the Third district court of appeals, affirming the judgment of common pleas court, which decided in favor of the defendants. Common Pleas Judge Hester S Young had held that a petition filed in probate court by Callie Retterer, administratrix of the estate of the late Mary Barbara Retterer and a daughter of the deceased, to sell real estate in Claridon township to settle debts of the estate, took precedence over the partition action started in common pleas court.

The case has been in the courts about five years. It was a two to one decision handed down in the court of appeals, Judge William Klinger dissenting, and Judges Charles A. Guernsey and Phil M. Crow favoring the defendants. The law firm of Carhart, Warner & Carhart, representing John G. Retterer, indicated the case will be appealed to the Ohio supreme court. W. P. Maloney is counsel for Callie Retterer.

Foreclosure Action

The People's Building, Savings & Loan Co. has filed suit in common pleas court against Walter S. Rank and others, seeking foreclosure of a mortgage on a tract of land adjoining lot No. 1431 in Reed, Uhler and True's addition, and judgment for $8,101.42. The loan company is represented by Donlehen & Michel.

Marriage License

A license to marry has been granted in probate court to Ralph A Porter, laborer, of 350 Chester street, and Florence Marie Mann of 529 Bartram avenue.

APPROACH OF HOLIDAY SENDS WHEAT LOWER

Washington Report on Corn Crop, Due Monday, Also Has Bearish Effect.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 9—With preholiday conditions restricting trade, wheat prices succumbed to moderate selling pressure today, and ruled lower.

All leading grain exchanges except Liverpool and Rotterdam will be closed Monday. Tending further to curtail business for the time being was the fact that a government crop report on corn production will be issued Monday from Washington.

Wheat closed easy, ¼@⅝ under yesterday's finish, Dec. 96@96⅛, corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, Dec. 58⅜@⅝, oats, unchanged to ⅛ higher, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to an equal advance.

Bowling Results

Industrial League Swings Into Action on Recreation Alleys; Shirk Rolls Score of 202.

The Industrial league got into action Friday night at the Recreation bowling alleys with two teams each from the Steam Shovel and Pollak Steel mill in action. Other teams, including one from the Susquehanna Silk mill, are expected to join the group next week.

The Pollak No. 1 team had high single game with 772, hitting this mark in two games. Shirk of that team rolled 202 for high individual score of the evening.

A Marion team will go to Upper Sandusky Sunday for a return match with bowlers of that city.
